

U.S. MONETARY AND FISCAL POLICY Going Exponential

Please join us for a lunch and important discussion of the Federal Reserve's recent inflation of the monetary base, and the record federal deficit spending with:

WALKER F. TODD, J.D., PH.D

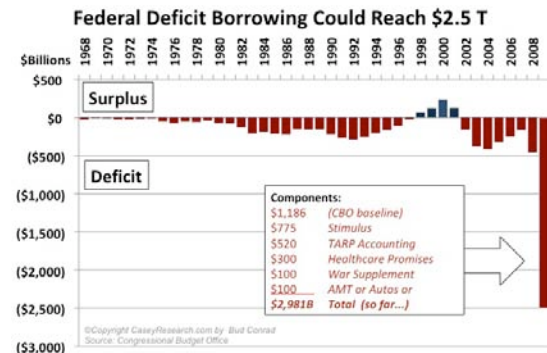

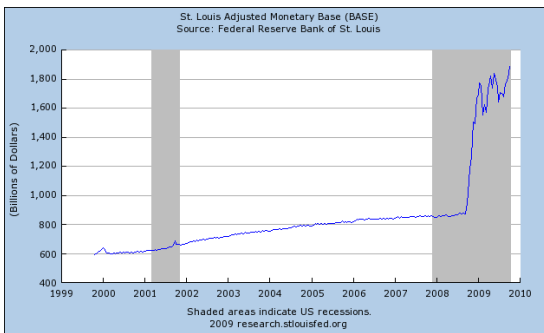

Research Fellow, American Institute for Economic Research
Former Adjunct Professor Cleveland-Marshall College of Law
Former Officer Federal Reserve Banks of Cleveland and New York

WILLIAM PEIRCE, PH.D

Professor Emeritus at CWRU and former Chairman of the Economics Department
Former Libertarian Party Gubernatorial Candidate

RAY KALICH

Former Vice President of Financial Management Services
The Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland

Date: December 2, 2009
Time: Noon
Room: Moot Court

For more information, please email:
mbrakey@law.csuohio.edu

