A NEW STORE LOOKS TO MAKE IT EASIER FOR DOWNTOWN RESIDENTS TO BUY THEIR GROCERIES. A FULL-SERVICE GROCERY STORE IS COMING TO UNIVERSITY SQUARE. THE STORE WILL SPECIALIZE IN TAKE OUT ITEMS AND FRESH FRUITS AND VEGGIES. AND IT WILL CATER TO PEOPLE WHO BUY MEALS ONLY FOR THE NEXT FEW DAYS. "SO MANY STUDENTS DON'T HAVE CARS SO THEY CAN STOCK UP ON GROCERIES AT A FEW WEEKS AT A TIME. WHAT THIS PLACE WILL PROVIDE IS EASY CONVENIENCE THAT IS SO CLOSE TO MANY STUDENTS WHO CAN WALK OR GET ON THE BUS TO THIS PLACE. " THE NEW MARKET IS EXPECTED TO CREATE ABOUT A DOZEN FULL-TIME JOBS AND ABOUT 50 PART-TIME POSITIONS. THE THREE-MILLION-DOLLAR PROJECT SHOULD BE COMPLETE AROUND THE FIRST OR SECOND WEEK OF JANUARY.

APPARENTLY STUDENTS LOOKING AT UW-MADISON AND EDGEWOOD COLLEGE FOR THEIR EDUCATION CAN COUNT ON THE OFF-CAMPUS LIFE TO BE JUST AS GOOD. ACCORDING TO A NEW COLLEGE DESTINATION INDEX PUBLISHED BY THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE FOR ECONOMIC RESEARCH, THE CITY OF MADISON RANKS NUMBER FIVE FOR COLLEGE STUDENTS IN CITIES WITH 250-THOUSAND TO ONE- MILLION PEOPLE. THE IDEA FOR THE INDEX IS THAT EVEN THOUGH CLASSES AND CAMPUS ARE IMPORTANT, OTHER FACTORS L IMPORTANT, OTHER FACTORS LIKE INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES AND ACCESS TO CULTURAL ACTIVITIES SHOULD PLAY A BIG ROLE AS WELL. IF YOU WANT TO SEE THE RANKINGS AND ALL THAT WENT INTO MAKING THE LIST, CLICK NEWS LINKS AT NBC 15 DOT COM. HUNDREDS ARE SICKENED BY THEIR FOOD, HUNDREDS ARE SICKENED BY THEIR FOOD, WITH RECALLS TRYING TO MAKE THINGS SAFER FOR YOUR DINNER TABLE.
